

Y.M.C.A. WILL OFFER 2 NEW COURSES SOON

Charles K. Leslie, Jr., Back From National Meeting Tells of Tulsa
Plans.

EXPERTS WORK OUT PLANS

Educational Activity of Association
Growing Over Entire County Is Report Brought Back.

Educational secretaries of the Young Men's Christian association have just closed a conference at Detroit, Mich., where they laid their plans for the coming year, improving and greatly enlarging this branch of the association work.

Charles K. Leslie, Jr., educational secretary of the local association, attended the conference and reports that much was done toward the establishment of a continental system of Christian character building by vocational education.

"Few people realize the magnitude of the educational work of the association," said Mr. Leslie. "For quite a number of years the enrollment has been in the neighborhood of 100,000 in the 300 or 400 associations doing the educational work, and the courses offered run from first grade work in some places to college degrees. This work in the past has been carried on by the local associations without much idea of what another association was doing, but the immediate plans now call for co-operation among the various associations and the standardizing of the courses. Experts in each separate line of endeavor will work out the courses best adapted to the local conditions and will continue an investigation of the work done by the school to see that the work is up to the standard." Mr. Leslie said.

The educational work at the Tulsa association was started in January and at present there are five classes. Two of these classes are in geography, two in public speaking and one in advertising. The enrollment has been 143, showing an exceptionally rapid growth for this short time. A very large increase in the Y. M. C. A. schools is contemplated for this fall. There seems to be little doubt but that a school of accountancy will be opened at that time, and probably a law school. In addition to these two schools, individual courses will be offered.

Ponca City Oil Man Interrupts Sale of Bonds, Lands in Jail

J. E. Burns, a prominent oil man of Ponca City, Okla., who came to Tulsa a few days ago, was in the crowd in oil demonstration of the tanks on Boston between 3rd and 4th streets, and took exception to some of the statements made by one of the speakers in connection with the Victory loan drive. The crowd was in a very patriotic spirit and if it had not been for the timely arrival of Capt. Jim Pukinger and Motorcycle Policemen Reynolds the man would have received rather rough treatment.

Burns was turned over to the federal authorities who say they are going to place a charge of violating of the espionage act, in attempting to obstruct the sale of the Victory loan bonds.

HIGH PRICES KEEP UP WITHOUT ANY CAUSE

Chamber of Commerce Statistician
Tells Trade Organization Pleads
for Supply and Demand Rule.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—High prices continue without "the slightest reason under the sun," A. W. Douglas of St. Louis, chief statistician of the chamber of commerce of the United States, told the representatives of a thousand American trade organizations in convention here tonight.

He added that there had already been some decline and declared that if the law of supply and demand was given freedom of operation the decline would continue until a normal level was reached.

Federal Control Fails.
Then, in touching on transportation and its effect on business, he brought the delegates to their feet in a burst of applause when he declared that the "unfortunate case in which transportation has fallen under government control is a splendid example of incompetence and extravagance."

In speaking before the national councilors of the chamber, which took up a score of American business problems to be submitted to the general convention tomorrow, Mr. Douglas declared there would be more grain available for export than our ships could move and added that there is more livestock in the country than ever before.

"And yet prices are maintained," he said. "There is talk of stabilizing prices; you might as well try to stabilize the tide. But prices must come down and will come down and will do so if the law of supply and demand is permitted free operation."

Wants Budget System.
After considerable debate the national councilors adopted a resolution advocating a budget system for the government and recommending that the chamber carry on a campaign in behalf of the project in all parts of the country.

In its annual report the committee on statistics and standards criticized the method of the department of agriculture in preparing estimates of the final yield of growing crops and recommended that congress be urged to provide more liberal appropriation for the department.

"The real difficulty," says the report, "seems to be that the department of agriculture is greatly ham-

AUSTRIAN PRESS SEES A DIVISION AMONG ALLIES

VIENNA, Thursday, April 24.—The withdrawal of the Italian delegation from the peace conference was received here with elation, the people generally being glad to see the allies in conflict with each other. The Neue Freie Presse says: "Premier Orlando is bluffing, probably in order to square his position in Italy toward the interventionists. It is impossible for Italy to withdraw, as she is led by America." The newspaper adds: "President Wilson's position is based on the idea of right and justice and it is hoped he will act in the same way toward Bohemia and Tyrol, where the people will be driven to desperation if subjected to Czech or Italian control."

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Nitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, legs and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles, the belief is widespread that there are a number of ways of making thin people fat. There are, however, only two ways of making thin people fat: one is to eat more food, and the other is to take more phosphate.

GEORGIA HAMILTON.
In modern foods, physicians claim there is nothing that will supply the deficiency in well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as nitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the body with the necessary phosphoric food elements, nitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing. This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, repeating her own experience, writes: "Nitro-phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION.—Although nitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.
